

Italianate charm & wild Welsh landscapes

From £2,389* Per Person

Portmeirion

Jaguar in Wales

Craig Goch Dam

Discover Wales in style on this two-centre tour, with three nights in Portmeirion exploring Snowdonia's mountains and coast, followed by three nights in mid-Wales with access to the Brecon Beacons and Elan Valley via some of the country's finest driving roads.

Tour ItinerarySunday 23rd May

Arrive in the unique village of Portmeirion and admire its stunning Italianate architecture. This evening begins with welcome drinks, a tour briefing and dinner together.

Monday 24th May

The day starts with a guided walking tour of Portmeirion before our 'Going Around the Mountain' drive through Snowdonia, with lunch included. Dinner is served back at the hotel this evening.

Tuesday 25th May

Today's 'Countryside & Coastal Run' includes a grand coffee stop and time for lunch at leisure. This afternoon features a special surprise before dinner in a castle.

Wednesday 26th May

Enjoy superb Welsh driving roads as we head into Mid-Wales, stopping for lunch at the famous Devils Bridge. This evening we arrive at the peaceful Lake Country House Hotel for dinner together.

Thursday 27th May

Today's 'Towns and Hills' run takes us through Welsh rallying country and the spectacular Elan Valley. Dinner is included at the hotel this evening.

Friday 28th May

After breakfast, we enjoy the 'Cambrian Mountain' run with a coffee stop in a picturesque Welsh village and lunch near the Elan Valley. This evening concludes with our farewell dinner.

Saturday 29th May

After breakfast, check out and continue your onward journey.

Departure Dates

23 - 29 May 2027

What's included:

- Six nights' accommodation on a bed and breakfast basis
- Dinner on each evening with water, tea and coffee
- Three lunches
- Coffee stops
- Detailed roadbook
- Rally plate
- Accompanied by a tour manager

What's not included:

- Wine with evening meals

We stay in two hotels for this tour:

The Portmeirion Hotel is unlike any hotel you might have stayed in before. The setting, on a peninsula with a wooded slope tumbling down to the Afon Dwyryd estuary is unrivalled.

The Lake Country Hotel sits on the banks of its own lakes and is surrounded by 50 acres of parkland.

*All prices are based on two people in a car sharing a twin/double room. A 10% deposit is required to confirm your booking.